COORDINARE Business Model

Vision: One regional health system that provides exceptional care, promotes healthy choices and supports resilient communities. locally service stakeholder national clinical consumer Inputs assessed mapping and priorities expertise engagement feedback needs utilisation Setting priorities Community Aboriginal Independent Clinical Governance Allocating resources Chair Councils Advisory Health Aboriginal Monitoring performance Committee Council representation Healthy Population Coordinating population Maintaining Encouraging better management Rising risk care for End of people who health low riskand prevention to optimise health are well populations hiah-risk life populations and wellbeing model and living populations independently Consumers General Practice Commissioning System Collaborative Designing activities to stop, slow, integration reverse, divert the flow of people approaches Partnering to across the continuum integrate services and systems Reorientating care to be Co-designing and commissioning outcomes which are locally relevant Place-based community based and closer to and sustainable home Achieving five key results: · improved health outcomes Foundations · better consumer experience Consumers Strong Strategic Building Data driven, Leveraging for change enhanced provider satisfaction front and relationships workforce alliances evidencedigital innovation networks and clinical with system capacity based and health and · increased value for money and leadership partners knowledge technology partnerships Improved health equity management